

Daily Grammar Worksheet

Lesson No. 53

Topic: Wh-questions

● Wh-questions:

WH-questions are the questions beginning with Wh-words like what, who, why, where, when, whom, whose, which and how. Wh-questions are also known as Open Questions, used to ask about definite people, places, times, qualities and so on. Wh-words are always presented in a functional or operational ways, conveying a grammatical and structural association with other words in a sentence.

● Frame Wh-questions so as to get an underlined parts as an answers:

1. Olivia saw a tall and handsome rose standing proudly and reaching high into space.

2. He kept us on a tight leash with his stern countenance fearing that we would go astray.

3. My brother slept on the floor in friends' rooms because he didn't have a dorm room.

4. Steve dropped out of Reed College after the first six month.

5. There are about 600 women serving in the Military Nursing and Medical Department.

6. G.B. Shaw is responsible for many of the outstanding literary works.

7. The doctor took me to his hospital to show different types of patients.

8. We should talk to the manager regarding the present situation.

Click here for Answers

OR Search in browser- myenglishsolution.com/dailygrammarsolutions

\(Click here for more Lesson-Worksheets\)

G-L-O-B-A-L E-N-G-L-I-S-H
CREATIVITY